

POSSE SURROUNDS JERSEY BANDIT IN WOOD AFTER FIGHT

Negro Who Held Up Two
With Pistol Fires on Pursuers
Near Ridgefield Park.

Armed detectives under the command of Sheriff Kinsley to-day surrounded the woods south of Overpeck Creek near Ridgefield Park, N. J., searching for a negro bandit who held up two men in the fashionable Jersey suburban district late last night.

The bandit's first victim was George Horod, who was returning to his home in Tenafly when the negro jumped at him, poked a revolver against his stomach and robbed him. Less than an hour later the same bandit held up Hugh McLeod of Hackensack, driver of a Borden milk wagon. McLeod also was robbed at the point of a revolver.

Sheriff Kinsley was notified, and, gathering a posse, he started on the trail of the robber. The negro was tracked to Ridgefield Park and overtaken there by the detectives. When the officers called upon him to surrender he opened fire with his revolver and a running fight followed.

The negro after firing half a dozen shots, disappeared in the woods south of Overpeck Creek. Sheriff Kinsley threw a cordon around the woods and is waiting for him to force the bandit out into the open.

During the fight one of the switchmen at the bridge over the creek reported that a bullet from the bandit's revolver pierced his clothing and lodged in the woodwork of his shanty.

John Lyon, multi-millionaire of Portchester, N. Y., died at his home in King Street there to-day at the age of 81. Mr. Lyon formerly resided in Greenwich, Conn., and had been a prosperous farmer all his life. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters.

CONFER ON BRIDGE DELAYS.

Traction Interests Complain of Harlem River Openings.

Due to complaints about the draw-bridges over the Harlem River being opened for marine traffic at unreasonable hours, a conference was held this afternoon at the Army Building in Whitehall Street between District Engineer Burr, U. S. A., Public Service Commissioner Halley, James Doyle of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and Edward Maher of the Third Avenue Railway Company. It is charged that the bridges open at times which cause interruption in traffic schedules and that for those interruptions the traction companies must account to the Public Service Commission.

Say He Said Whiskey Near Elmhurst Police Station.

Gus Coutaris, a Greek, owner of a restaurant, candy store and dance hall at Broadway and Queens Boulevard, Elmhurst, was arrested yesterday, charged with selling whiskey, an outcome of the efforts of the Queens County Branch of the Allied Citizens of America to run down violators of the Prohibition Act. Coutaris's place is less than 300 feet from the Elmhurst Police Station.

Soft, Colorful Fleisher Yarns

With the continued and increasing vogue of the hand-made sweater, we have made every effort to obtain the most satisfactory yarn available.

The Fleisher yarns are the result of much study of yarn making. Besides their beautiful and dependable qualities, they come in several desirable weights, and many unusual shades.

Two exceptionally new and lovely yarns are Silver-glow, part silk—part wool; and Corinthian, a very fine light-weight yarn.

The following new model sweaters, all ready-made, are being displayed in the department—The Manchester, the Beechwood, the Sussex, the Lenox, the Ogontz, and the Mayfair.

Instruction and instruction pamphlets free of charge.
